2.9.1 In the counselling of general pool, if a candidate of reserved category gets a place in the merit list of unreserved category, he shall first be allotted a seat in unreserved category. If he does not get a seat as per his preference in unreserved category, he shall be allotted a seat in reserved category as per his eligibility.

After such allotment, the vacant reserved seats shall be mutually converted and allotted in the following order- i.e. Scheduled Tribes to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Castes to Scheduled Tribes, Scheduled Tribes/ Scheduled Castes to Other Backward Classes, Other Backward Classes to Scheduled Tribes.

2.9.2 After conducting counselling for reserved categories and allocating seats to reserved category candidates, the vacant seats, if any, shall be merged with unreserved seats and after that allotment shall be made again on unreserved seats.

2.9.3 If the seats remains vacant after the first round of counselling held on the basis of merit of common entrance test then the decision regarding holding of second round of counselling either separately on the basis of marks obtained in the entrance test and/or simultaneously with the counselling on the basis of percentages of aggregate mark obtained in the qualifying examination shall be taken by the competent authority keeping in view the number of vacant seats for a particular course and approximate number of candidates willing for admission. In the counselling of qualifying examination all the available seats shall be presumed to be under unreserved seats and the allotment shall be made accordingly on the basis of a joint merit list of candidates of all categories.

If, after providing opportunity to the last candidate of list through common entrance test, it is decided to hold counselling on the basis of marks obtained in qualifying examination, then all the available seats shall be considered under unreserved seats and the seats of unreserved category for which allotment shall be made on the basis of a joint merit list of candidates of all categories.

If, after aforesaid round of counselling seats still remains vacant, they shall be filled as per Admission Rules-2008 (As Ammended) in accordance with the procedure notified by the competent authority.

2.9.4 After having selected the Seat/Institution, the candidate shall have to report in the concerned institution before the cut-off date, which will be mentioned in the admission slip issued by the Competent Authority at the time of counselling. In the institution where candidate is selected, candidate shall have to complete all formalities and he/she shall pay the remaining amount of fees etc. in the institution where he/she is admitted. All the candidates shall be required to pay the fees in the institution as per the rules of Government of Madhya Pradesh as applicable to them on the date of admission.

2.9.5 Inter-se merit: -

If candidate obtain equal marks in the qualifying examination, then merit will be decided by given preference to the candidate who is older in age. If age is same then merit of the candidate will be decided by English alphabetical order of the candidate name.

2.9.6 The candidates are required to visit the web site of Competent Authority i.e <https://dte.mponline.gov.in>. The details of, procedure for submitting application form, eligibility, schedule of counselling, admission procedure and counselling fee shall be available on these websites. Candidates must visit these websites frequently to observe & note latest notices & changes.

2.9.7 In case, any university awards grade in qualifying examination, then copy of certificate from the competent authority of the university, stating equivalent percentage of marks as well as conversion formula used, must be produced along with application form at the time of verification in original.

2.9.8 Transfer of institution shall not be permitted.

2.9.9 All admissions shall be completed on or before the last date declared by the Competent Authority.

2.10 Cancellation of Admission:

- (1) If at any stage it is found that a candidate has got admission in any institution on the basis of false or incorrect information or by hiding relevant facts or if at any time after admission it is found that the admission was given to the candidate due to some mistake or oversight, the admission granted to such a candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith without any notice at any time during the course of his/her studies by the Principal of the institution or by Competent Authority.
- (2) The academic calendar issued by the constitutional body will remain effective for the admitted session. If the admission is canceled after the date prescribed for refund of fees after cancellation of admission in the said calendar, the refund of tuition fee will not be accepted.
- (3) Vacancy arising (in particular class/category/compartments) due to cancellation of admission or due to non-reporting of candidates by the stipulated date (as declared by the Competent Authority) in a particular Institution, shall be considered in the counselling in the following manner: -

During the counselling, if seats are available, in that particular course, vacancy/vacancies arising due to above reasons shall be added directly to existing vacancy/vacancies and shall be available for allotment.

- (4) After the last date of admission, cancellation of admission shall only be done by the institution.

2.11 Tuition and other Fees:

Tuition fee and other fee, as decided by the Admission & Fee Regulatory Committee/ State Government/ University, shall be applicable.

2.12 Modification to rules/procedures:

The Government of Madhya Pradesh reserved the rights to amend any provision / rules/ procedure for admission after due consultation from Admission and Fee Regulatory Committee to ensure fair and transparent admission procedure and any modification so made shall be binding.

A candidate aggrieved with any contravention on the part of the Agency or any contravention of the provisions of the Act could make an application to the Committee pinpointing the cause of action and alleged lapse in following the procedure or provisions of the Act.

2.13 Interpretation:

Norms, requirements and other conditions for admission to technical/ professional courses are as per the guidelines issued by PCI. for M. Pharmacy.

The Government of Madhya Pradesh shall be the final authority for deciding any matter in respect of policy regarding selection of candidates for admission. If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules for admission, the decision of the Government of MP shall be final and binding.

2.14 Jurisdiction:

In case of any dispute the jurisdiction shall be limited to the courts constituted and situated in State of Madhya Pradesh only.

A copy of this rule book shall be available on the website Directorate of Technical Education, M.P. i.e. <https://dte.mponline.gov.in>.
